

Responses to the Charlottesville KKK and white supremacist rallies are diverse. Some feel called to direct presence while others may focus on family events of shared community in picnic and music. Still others may be drawn to quiet presence at home or to financial support of organizations that work for care and inclusion.

If your wish is to support financially, here are some suggestions of community neighbors who could use your funds this summer.

Jefferson School African American Heritage Center (JSAAHC), whose mission is to honor and preserve the rich heritage and legacy of the African-American community of Charlottesville-Albemarle, Virginia and to promote a greater appreciation for, and understanding of, the contributions of African Americans and peoples of the Diaspora locally, nationally and globally. <http://jeffschoolheritagecenter.org>

Checks to JSAAHC, 233 4th St, NW Box A, C'ville, VA 22903

Memo: Either "General Fund" or "July 8 Event."

My Zion Baptist Church Back 2 School Bash provides children with school supplies and a backpack for families who may not be able to afford them. The average cost is $25 for the supplies and backpack. No one gets paid; 100% of monies goes to providing school supplies. (These supplies will be distributed at the Pavilion on August 12th)

Checks to Back 2 School Bash, Mt Zion FABC, 105 Lankford Avenue, C'ville, VA 22902.

Public Housing Association of Residents (PHAR) is dedicated to making Charlottesville redevelopment a reality which improves and repairs our public housing communities, makes amends for past racist policies, expands affordable housing, addresses gentrification and creates a vibrant, resident-focused future. <http://www.pharville.org>

Checks to PHAR, 1000 Preston Ave Suite C, Charlottesville, VA 22903

City of Promise is a neighborhood-based program that offers skills and support to pave the way for children's academic success and families' life-long thriving. The aim is to create a C'ville community where all children are valued and have the tools they need to reach their potential..

Donate: <http://cityofpromise.com>